

Future-Ready AI Skill Workforce Readiness Survey

These survey responses from 2023-2025 include 80,626 students (17%), 6,085 faculty (21%), and 7,349 staff (29%), across 23 colleges and universities, making this the largest survey worldwide on AI in higher education.

Key Findings

95% of students use at least one AI tool. 53% use AI regularly for coursework, and 65% outside of coursework.

69% of students, and 82% of faculty/staff, believe AI will become an essential part of most professions.

39% of students say their faculty encourages the use of AI.

82% of students have concerns about AI's impact on job security.

64% of students and 72% of faculty/staff say using AI has positively affected their professional/learning experience.

Student AI Literacy and Skilling are interested in receiving formal training in AI through coursework or other resources on campus.

49%

However, only 30% have seen opportunities to learn more about AI on their campus.

And only 9% have attended a workshop or seminar on AI use.

88%

of students find it necessary to verify the validity and accuracy of the responses that AI generates.

60%

of students and 72% of faculty/staff believe AI can enhance creativity and innovation.

84%

of students and 89% of faculty/staff worry about AI's impact on personal privacy of students and 61% of faculty/staff don't trust AI to provide accurate information.

62%